SedonaSetup

SedonaSetup

SedonaSetup is a separate application within SedonaOffice which stores all the control options and setup tables that make up the backbone of the application. Setup tables and application options are accessed and maintained within SedonaSetup by Users with the proper permissions.