Materials Returned to a Warehouse

If parts are returned to a Warehouse from a Job, the cost of the returned parts is deducted from the Job Material costs. Parts may be returned to a Warehouse using one of two methods; using the Issue Parts function within a Job record or using the Issue/Returns function from the Inventory module. Both methods have the same end result. The return method used is based on User preference; whichever method is found easiest to use.

Part Return from the Job Record

□

Job Part Return from Inventory Issues/Returns

□