Tools Toolbar-Log

Selecting the Log button from the Tools Toolbar will display all data entry activity for the Job by all Users. The entries in this list are automatically recorded by the application. This is the Job audit trail record. If you are trying to find out who did what and when, this is the place to go.

You may create a manual entry into the Log by right-clicking and selecting the Add User Event option.