User Group Security Setup

To be able to setup a new Inspection record or edit an existing Inspection record, the User must be granted permission within the User Group to which they are linked. The permission is located on the Application Access tab within the CM permission group, labeled Access to Add/Edit Inspections.

□